*Love,
Mrs. Rankin*

I expect myself and every student to be an advocate for themselves. This means:

When I need help, I ask.

When I don't understand, I request more information.

When I need to solve a problem, I do what is right.

When I work with others, I look for their needs and opinions.

When I want to give up, I remember that is too easy and I need to try harder.

I am my greatest advocate and it is the one constant that no one can change.

YOU CAN HAVE RESULTS
OR EXCUSES
NOT BOTH
