JUST THE FACTS! WORKSHEET

Sometimes one of the very best ways to overcome doubtful thoughts is to compare them to the facts.

- Write down all of the doubtful thoughts you have about going to college.
- Work with a partner or small group to see what information you have that is factual and can dispute the doubtful thought.
- Be prepared to share what you know as a group and find out what facts others may have.

Doubtful Thoughts About Going to College	FACTS
Example: Colleges only look at grades. Mine were not very good in my freshmen year so I won't be able to go.	Example: Colleges look at many things when admitting students. Researching programs and knowing how your GPA sets you up to be successful the first college year is what is most important.
