Briefly describe your goals for the future and your possible career path:

After viewing the Rotary International web page, write a brief on page essay reflecting upon Rotary's goals, and any of the programs Rotary sponsors worldwide, and how your aspirations may be mutually exclusive. Incorporate your impression of the Rotary motto "Service Above Self," thus the groups' main object: service – in the community, in the workplace, and throughout the world. (This essay should be typed and double-spaced)

In addition to filling out this application and essay, please attach:

- A one-page resume of your activities including other awards and scholarships received and school activities and community service work you have participated in.

Your completed application must be returned to Heidi Eberle in the Counseling Office at SHS by April 13th, 2018.
